Senior TechRALLY Coming to Miami Springs

Press release date: 2012-12-04

A unique opportunity is coming to the Miami Springs Community Center for area Senior Citizens on Monday, December 10th. The AT&T Senior TechRALLY has chosen the Rebeca Sosa Theater as the only venue in Miami-Dade County to host this exciting and informative event.

Co-sponsored by the City of Miami Springs and the Alliance for Aging, Inc., TechRALLY is a totally FREE full day of relaxed interactive sessions that have been developed to immerse Seniors and Baby Boomers in the hottest and latest means of mobile technology. Attendees will learn the basic "how-to's", with existing phones they already own, and discover the fun of new Tablet and Smartphone technologies – text messaging, video calling and photo sharing. Enjoyable and easy hands-on learning is guaranteed for all participants as the event will have over 200 top of the line Smartphones, tablets, a 10-person support team, printed guidebooks and follow-up support that will enable them to learn how to stay connected to the people and passions in their lives.

The Senior TechRALLY will run from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. with an hour break for lunch. Enrollment is limited to the first 80 participants! To sign up, phone Public Information Specialist Carol Foster at 305.805.5054 or the Senior Center at 305.805.5160, or email fosterc@miamisprings-fl.gov.
